

GEY: Gerontology Courses

---

Courses

GEY 4001 Gerontology

3 sh (may not be repeated for credit)

Course addresses the biology of the aging process and the impact of these changes on the older adult; it enhances the knowledge and understanding of biological changes associated with aging in humans and their manifestations for health care professionals who work with older adults.