LAH: Latin American History Courses

Courses

LAH 4905  Directed Study
1-12 sh (may be repeated indefinitely for credit)

LAH 6476  Colonial Caribbean
3 sh (may not be repeated for credit)

This class introduces students to the colonial Caribbean as a historically unique region. It begins in 1492 with contact and ends with the emancipation of 1833. We will move rapidly through the century of Spanish hegemony before turning to the British islands as they evolved from frontiers to mature plantation societies. Students will evaluate scholarship and sources in the classroom and in major research projects.
