SDS: Student Development Services Courses

Courses

SDS 6345  Educational and Vocational Guidance
3 sh (may not be repeated for credit)
Socio-psychological forces influencing career choice; identification, selection and use of educational and career guidance resources; use of decision-making concepts and skills in choosing educational and occupational alternatives.

SDS 6647  Foundations of Counseling Principles for Student Affairs Administration
3 sh (may not be repeated for credit)
This course is designed to serve as a professional preparation course in which students will have the opportunity to learn basic counseling concepts and applications essential for effective student affairs practice. Students will be prepared for competent student affairs practice through the examination of personal values, professional ethics, and personal demonstration of essential practice skills that will serve diverse populations with specific attention to gender, sexual orientation, class, race, and ethnicity. Issues related to college student mental illness will also be addressed.

SDS 6905  Directed Study
1-12 sh (may be repeated indefinitely for credit)