

Appeal of Admission Denial

Denial of Undergraduate Admission to the University

Undergraduate applicants who are denied admission to the University may appeal the admission decision. Appeals are encouraged if an applicant believes the decision was inequitable because of some extenuating circumstance or revealed data that is now available for consideration. Applicants are requested to consult the Appeal procedures spelled out in the "Freshman Admissions" and "Transfer Admissions" sections for the procedures that were accepted by the University of West Florida Board of Trustees in January 2016.

Denial of Admission to Limited Access Bachelor's Degree Programs

Applicants who have been denied admission to a limited access bachelor's degree program at the University may appeal, in writing, to the appropriate college dean by the first day of classes of the semester for which admission was requested.
