which unreasonably interferes with a student's status or performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or educational environment. Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome or unsolicited sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Guidance, support, and assistance concerning discrimination are available from the Office of Human Resources. Any student believing they have been harassed may bring complaints to the Office of Human Resources.

Use of Instructional Space and Resources

University facilities and equipment are intended primarily for the use of the faculty and students currently enrolled in courses of instruction. Students who have completed registration, including the payment of fees for the current semester, and whose names appear on the final class rolls, are authorized to attend classes and to use University instructional areas, facilities, equipment, and designated services. Students, including those continuing work on theses and dissertations, who are not enrolled for the current semester, are not authorized to use instructional space and resources. Students may not attend classes, including use of instructional space, facilities, designated library services, and equipment, for which they have not paid fees or from which they have withdrawn.

New Student Orientation - Freshman and Transfer Students

Refer to information on Orientation (http://uwf.edu/admissions/orientation).

New freshmen and transfer students with less than 30 credit hours earned after high school graduation must attend Orientation prior to registration. For additional information, please see the Orientation website (http://uwf.edu/admissions/orientation). Please use the Student Schedule Organization Tools (https://confluence.uwf.edu/display/public/Student+Schedule+Organization+Tools) for assistance with organizing your schedule.
