

International Undergraduate Admissions

Applicants to the University are considered international if they are not U.S. Citizens and if they require a visa to remain in the United States. In addition to the policies and procedures stated for the different categories of admission, the following information pertains to international applicants. Domestic applicants should refer to the "Freshman Admissions" or "Transfer Admissions" sections.

The following outlines the general processing of all International students to the University of West Florida. These procedures are encompassed in UWF Regulation 3.042, approved by the University of West Florida Board of Trustees in March 2012.

Office of International Affairs

1. Admission of international students to the University of West Florida (UWF or "University") is governed by Florida Board of Governors (BOG) regulations 6.009, 6.002, and 6.004, and the requirements herein.
2. For purposes of this regulation applicants to the University of West Florida will be considered "International" Students if they are not U.S. citizens and if they require a visa to remain in the United States. Applicants who are permanent residents of the United States are not considered International Students.
3. International students must meet minimum requirements as outlined in UWF Regulation 3.001 Admissions Standards for First Time in College Student Applicants or UWF Regulation 3.032 Undergraduate Admissions Standards for Transfer Students in order to be considered for admission, depending on their student type classification upon application. Failure to meet the requirements to be considered for an admissions evaluation may result in an incomplete application. Satisfaction of minimum requirements does not guarantee admission into the University. Preference for admission in any term will be given to those applicants whose credentials indicate the greatest promise of academic success.
4. In addition to meeting requirements outlined in UWF Regulations 3.001 or 3.032, international applicants must also meet the following criteria and submit the required documentation to receive consideration for admission to the University:
 - A degree seeking applicant (undergraduate and graduate) whose native language is not English must provide evidence of English language proficiency. Non-degree undergraduate students are not required to provide documentation of English proficiency unless they are attending UWF under an international exchange agreement which requires the student to document English proficiency. The English requirement (proficiency in written and spoken English) may be fulfilled by establishing one of the following:
 1. That the applicant is from a country where English is the official language; or
 2. That the applicants' prior associate's, bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree was earned from an institution whose accrediting agency is included on the list of approved accrediting agencies; or
 3. That the applicants' prior bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree was earned from a country where English is the official language, or from a university at which English is the official language of instruction; or
 4. That the applicant achieved a qualifying standardized test score (ACT or SAT).
 5. That the applicant achieved a qualifying score on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), International English Language Testing System (IELTS), the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), Duolingo English Test (DET), Pearson Test of English (PTE), Cambridge English Language Assessment (CELA), and Oxford Online Placement Test.
 - Qualifying scores for undergraduate applicants are either a TOEFL internet-based score of 71, an IELTS score of 6.0, a CEFR score of B2, a DET score of 95, PTE score of 50, CELA score of 170, or an Oxford Online Placement Test score of B2.
1. Applicants must submit transcripts evidencing all prior academic coursework including post-secondary education. The University requires an official copy of all academic credentials. Transcripts that are not in English must be accompanied by a certified English translation. Transcripts from educational institutions outside the United States must be evaluated by a credential evaluation service, as specified on the international application. (All academic credentials become property of the University. They will not be returned or forwarded to a third party. Credentials of applicants who do not enroll within one year will be destroyed).
2. Applicants must submit a non-refundable application fee payable in U.S. dollars.
3. Applicants must complete and submit the following medical information through the MyUWF, Immunization Status app:
 - a. Medical History Form completed by the student
 - b. Upload documentation of shot records including:
 - i. Documentation of MMR (measles, mumps and rubella) immunization, and
 - ii. Proof of immunization for meningitis and hepatitis B, or a signed waiver indicating the applicant's informed decision not to be vaccinated.
4. Applicants must provide proof of medical insurance that complies with the requirement of University policy, AC-6.00- 08/08 "Medical Insurance Coverage for Enrolled International Students" for all applicants on F-1 or J-1 visas.
5. Applicants must provide a Certification of Finances before the Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20 or a DS-2019) will be issued by the University. The Certificate of Finances will show specific sources of a satisfactory level of financial support and the amount expected from each source. Funding sources must be verified by the student's or sponsor's bank by submitting an original bank statement from the student's or sponsor's financial institution. The total funds available to the student for the first academic year must at least equal the total estimates of institutional costs and living expenses. For applicants living outside the U.S., the Declaration and Certification of Finances must be received by the University no later than the application deadline each semester.

6. For transfer students: A completed transfer clearance form is required for F-1 applicants to verify their eligibility to transfer in F-1 status.
7. Undergraduate applicants who have provided all required materials and who meet all admission requirements except the English proficiency requirement may be considered for Conditional Admission to the University. Undergraduate students who receive a Conditional Admission letter who desire to attend UWF must enroll in the Intensive English Program at UWF. If such students seek to enroll in a degree program, they must meet the requirements set forth above.
8. Applicants will not be considered for admission until the University has received all required materials. Undergraduate international student applications, along with all other records required for admission must be received by the program deadline or university international application deadline, whichever is earlier, unless the deadline is waived by the University in writing.
