

Degree Audit System

Degree Audit System

Degree Works is a tool to help identify and track all graduation requirements for each degree program, certificate, or minor at the University. Students may check their individual progress toward degree by reviewing their degree audit, which is available in MyUWF. The degree audit is used for the final graduation check. A completed audit is required before an undergraduate degree is awarded.